Sri T. N. Narasimhaiah, c/o K. R. Naik, Tailors, M. G. Road, Tumkur. I Party.

The Management of Sri Paraswanatha Rice and Oil Mills, Sira Road, Tumkur. II Party.

Reference:—Government Order No. FCL 1069 LLD 71, dated 21st July 1972.

AWARD.

1. The Government of Mysore in their Order No. FCL 1069 LLD 71, dated 21st July 1972 have referred an industria dispute exiting between the above named parties to this court fo adjudication on the points of dispute as noted below:—

Is the management of M/s Sri Paraswanatha Rice and Oil Mills, Sira Road, Tumkur, justified in terminating the services of Sri T. N. Narasimhaiah, with effect from 2nd September 1968? If not, to what relief is the said worker entitled?

2. After the reference was registered notice by registered post was sent to the first party to file his statement of claims by 23rd August 1972. The said notice was returned unserved with endorsement "not found during delivery time." Hence another registered notice was issued directing the first party to file his claim statement by 26th August 1972. The said notice was served on the first party as is seen from the postal acknowledgement. No claim statement was filed. The case was posted to 21st September 1972 and 23rd October 1972. On 23rd October 1972 a fresh notice by ordinary post was sent to the first party stating that if he does not appear on 17th November 1972 further proceedings would be taken. Even on 17th November 1972 the first party was absent. There was no prayer made for adjournment also. In these circumstances I am of opinion that no useful purpose would be served by keeping the reference pending any longer. The first party does not appear to be diligent and he is not evincing any interest in prosecuting his case.

3. I therefore pass an award dismissing the order of reference. No costs.
